A "Politically Exposed Persons" (PEP) means a natural person who is or have been entrusted with prominent public functions, other than middle ranking or more junior officials. For the purposes of this definition, this includes the following:

- Heads of State, Heads of Government, Ministers, Deputy or Assistant Ministers, and Parliamentary Secretaries;
- Members of Parliament or similar legislative bodies;
- Members of the governing bodies of political parties;
- Members of the superior, supreme, and constitutional courts or of other high level judicial bodies whose decisions are not subject to further appeal, except in exceptional circumstances;
- Members of courts of auditors, or of the boards of central banks;
- Ambassadors, chargé d'affaires and other high-ranking officers in the armed forces;
- Members of the administrative, management or supervisory boards of state-owned enterprises; and

Points a to f should include individuals exercising an equivalent function within an EU institution or any other international body

The regulation shall also be applicable to family members or persons known to be close associates of PEP:

"Family Members" include the spouse (or equivalent); the children and their spouses; and the parents.

"Persons Known to be Close Associates" means:

- natural person known to have joint beneficial ownership of a body corporate or any other form of legal arrangement, or any other close business relations, with that PEP;
- natural person who has sole beneficial ownership of a body corporate or any other form of legal arrangement that is known to have been established for the benefit of that PEP.

The regulatory requirements are mandatory as long as a PEP remains entrusted with a prominent public function and for at least twelve months after the date on which that person ceased to be entrusted with a prominent public function.
